That he the said Joseph Lloyd enlisted for the term of eighteen months or (or about) the 1st day of April 1788 in the State of Virginia in the Company Commanded by Captain James Wiley in the 4th Virginia Regiment Commanded by Colonel Thomas Hastings in the line of the State of Virginia on Continental Establishment. That he continued to serve in said Corps or Company until he was sent home sick from North Down in Virginia that he continued sick until his term expired after which he obtained the Certificate of discharge of Brigadier General Morgan. That he hereby gives up every claim whatever to a Pension except the present; that his name is not on the Roll of any State except Virginia and that the following are the reasons for not making earlier application for a pension viz: He did not wish to be burthensome to his Country & did not wish to call on it for a support until increasing age & infirmities rendered it necessary. And in pursuance of the Act of the 1st May 1820 I do solemnly swear that I was a resident Citizen of the United States on the 18th day of March 1818 and that I have not been that time by gift sale or in any manner disposed of my property or any part thereof with intent thereby to diminish it or to bring myself within the provisions of an Act of Congress "entitled an Act to provide for Certain Persons engaged in the land and Naval Service of the United States in the Revolutionary War" passed on the 18th day of March 1818 and that I have not nor has any Person in Trust for

Kentucky in the year 1815 the expense of which nearly took all my property and since the 18th March 1818 I have increased my little property to the above value of $69. The Declarant further states that he is now old and not able
